INFORMATION ABOUT BURSARY

The Agricultural Economics Association of South Africa (AEASA) established the BD Nomvete Memorial Bursary Trust Fund in memory of Prof. B.D. Nomvete, to provide PhD bursaries to eligible students in Agricultural Economics or an approved related discipline. The bursary amount is R50 000 per annum per student over two years, with a maximum of three years.

Selection Criteria

The following minimum selection criteria shall apply:

- Applicants must meet the admission criteria of the relevant higher education institution.
- The study undertaken by the student must be of such a nature as to potentially contribute to either the field of Agricultural Economics or towards the solution of agricultural economic or socio-economic problems in a meaningful way.
- The applicant shall be a South African citizen.
- Applicants may not be older than 35 years in the first year in which they receive the bursary.
- Preference will be given to applicants from previously disadvantaged backgrounds.
- Studies must be undertaken on a full-time basis.

How to Apply

All candidates should direct their applications to: B.D. Nomvete Memorial Bursary Trust Fund, AEASA, Private Bag x935, Arcadia, Pretoria, 0001 or email to Elma du Plessis at elduples@namc.co.za. The closing date is 16 September 2021. Successful candidate(s) will be announced during the 2021 Annual General Meeting of AEASA.

The application should include the following:

- Information concerning the field in which the candidate intends to pursue a PhD degree, and details regarding the University and academic department in which the candidate intends to undertake or complete his or her PhD. This information should include the institution's available expertise in the field in which the candidate intends to specialise.
- A comprehensive research proposal, approved by the candidate's proposed supervisor(s).
- Detailed CV, containing at least:
 - The candidate's employment history (if any).
 - The candidate's certified detailed academic record.
 - Two character references.

Other

- Students will have to submit written progress reports supported by the supervisor to trigger the release of funds for subsequent years. The supervisor and referee identified by the candidate will also submit confidential letters of reference.
- For queries, please contact AEASA Secretary.
- You will be informed of the outcome of your application by 30 October 2021.
- It is important to note that the submission of an application with all the necessary information does not guarantee that a bursary will be approved. AEASA reserves the right not to make awards.
- A checklist of required documents and information can be found on the last page of this application form.
